Groom Tip - Speak from the heart

Often Grooms get tongue-tied when they don't know how to express their feelings about their bride on their wedding day. The best moments always come from the heart. Just say how you feel. Of course, you need to keep some decorum and tact but you should speak with your voice and how you feel about your wife on your wedding day. There's nothing wrong with taking the microphone just after your introduction into the room and saying "Man....isn't my wife

HOT!" or "Doesn't my wife look BEAUTIFUL today?"

Take that moment. Speak from the heart. Your wife will thank you for it later and you will look like a stud in front of all of your friends and family.

Going cruising on your honeymoon?

Ever been on a cruise? If so, ever had a balcony cabin? If so, I'm sure you haven't been able to go back to an ocean view or inside stateroom again. One of the biggest benefits of the balcony cabin that you have your own little space to gaze out at the ocean every morning or out at the stars at the end of the day.

Here's a little trick for your next cruise - bring a bungee cord. Yes, I said a bungee cord.

No...you're not going to try to sling shot up the side of the ship. Attach one end of the bungee cord to the door of your balcony cabin on the outside. Put the other end of the cord against the ships rail. Now you and your new spouse can fall asleep at night on your cruise to the waves crashing against the side of the ship. What a beautiful way to end a long day of cruising!

Kissing Couples Drawing

An excerpt from The Best Wedding Reception...Ever!

It's fairly common at wedding receptions for the guests to clink on their glasses as a signal that they want the Bride & Groom to kiss. You can build on this tradition by adding a fun twist. Provide your MC with a list of several other couples (married, engaged and dating) that will be in attendance. Then have the MC instruct your guests that each time they tap on their drinking glasses and the two of you kiss, another couple will be randomly selected from the list and called on to stand and kiss while your guests cheer them on. If you are both more outgoing and slightly daring, you could add a fun twist to this idea by requiring that they two of you must imitate their unique kiss. Soon, your guests will be finding fun and creative ways to make the two of you kiss.
